The petr. appeals against the Dy. Commrs. order directing the auction sale of the fruits of the inam land endowed to Dadasahalli Chowdamma Devaru. He states that the land has continued in his family for upwards of 30 years, that the land is kanjaru yielding grass worth 5 or 6 Rs, that he is conducting some festival (Gangas) to the deity at a cost of 100 or 125 Rs, that the services will cease if the land is taken away from him and prays that the Dy. Commrs. order appealed against may be cancelled and the land restored to his possession. He adds that pending disposal of his appeal, the execution of the Dy. Commrs. order may be stayed. Submitted. The Dy. Commrs. report explains the facts of the case fully.

The aplt admits that there is no temple building from time immemorial, that under a tree on the inam land, there is a deity to which it is not manul to conduct nityakatle Puja, that it is usual to conduct some festival once a year. As regards his right to hold the land, he alleges that the land has continued in his family from the times of his grand-fathers, but admits that he has no documents to substs his claim - The inam land in question is dry, and measures 12-4-8 and is assessed at Rs 7. The aplt is enjoying it on payt of 11 annas (4 annas jodi & 7 annas

The deity is the Village Sakte-Devate or Chowdamma Devaru under the Banyan tree standing on its inam land S. no. 7 of the Becharak Village of Dasadahalli in the Alur Sub-Taluk. S. no 7 is a piece of dry land measuring 12-7 a & and assessed at Rs 7 with jodi and cesses amounting to 11 annas, and the yield from the land is the grass grown on it.

It is reported that from the very commencement, there has been no Temple building to the Sakti Devate. The villagers state in their mahazar that it is not usual to do daily puje to the Devate, that the apte and his ancestors have been enjoying the land for more than 50 years and selling the usual Chowdi Habba celebrated during Ashada every year through Agasaru, that there is no permanent Pujari and that it is not possible to secure one; the inam land

The Mayor after viewing the premises states that no Nityakatte puja was ever being done and the fact that only an annual festival was being celebrated finds mention in the Inam enquiry.

Similar instances are not wanting where Inams have been granted for an annual festival in honour of a deity e.g. Karaga, provided so long as this festival is being observed it seems like a fit case to allow the appellant to enjoy the Inam. Although the worship is two grades and no particular case seems to be called for either to perpetuate or eliminate it.
